Dear Harold,

Please excuse the delay in my writing you. I wanted to know more about the UCLA speaking date before I contacted you.

the Associated Students have set a tentative date for Nov. 15 with Tranh van Dzu, runner-up in the South Vietnamese "elections" and will not be able to host your speech unless he falls through. However, the CCI will sponsor you at UCLA Nov. 16.

Otherwise, I have sent letters to all media in the Los Angeles area and should begin to get replies next week. May I get 50 copies of OSWALD IN NEW ORLEANS as soon as possible? These are for Maggies, Ray, etc. and the interviewers who show interest. Also, I will send it to those who show no interest. We want to sell them after you speak so we'll use the rest for then.

I saw Hal Verb when I was in San Francisco this weekend so we will be sure we don't conflict on your schedule.

In case you are interested, I found out where we can contact David Kroman. If you want the address, I'll send it to you.

That's all for now,

Best wishes,

Steven J. Burton
